Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, December 8.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Norwich, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Concern and Indignation at the Outrage offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your late Progreſs to Parliament.

We truſt your Majeſty is convinced that no Subject of the Britiſh Empire, capable of eſtimating your Majeſty's Virtues, or of calculating the Bleſſings derived to your People from your Government and Example, can be ſo inſenſible to the publick Welfare, or ſo loſt to his own Intereſt, as not to entertain the utmoſt Abhorrence from the atrocious Tranſactions of that Day. And while we venture to expreſs our Reſpect and Venration for your Majeſty's perſonal Virtues, we cannot diſſemble our extreme Anxiety for the Honour and Safety of the eſtabliſhed Government, which we conceive to have been inſulted and outraged in your Majeſty's Perſon, when exerciſing the higheſt Functions of your ſacred Character.

We implore God to continue his Protection of your Majeſty's Life, and to ſhield it from the Aſſaults as well of the Ignorant as Ill-deſigning; and we moſt fervently ſupplicate Him ſo to frame and faſhion the Hearts of your Subjects, that they may always be found worthy of poſſeſſing, and capable of tranſmitting to their lateſt Poſterity, the Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution, in which is comprehended whatever is of Excellence and Value in Society, Freedom, Order, Religion.

[Preſented by the Lord Biſhop of Norwich.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Canons of Chriſt Church, the Archdeacon, the Chancellor, and the Reſt of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Oxford, humbly beg Permiſſion to expreſs our moſt affectionate Grief and Concern occaſioned by the late unnatural and barbarous Outrage upon the Life of a Sovereign, whoſe Reign has been diſtinguiſhed by a mild and gracious Government, by a ſtrict and conſcientious Support of our Conſtitution, by a ſincere Love of his People,

People, and by his many perſonal and exemplary Virtues.

Reflecting on theſe and other Circumſtances which do Honor to ſo exalted a Character, we are aſtoniſhed that even one Man ſhould have exiſted capable of ſuch a daring, ſuch a baſe and traiterous Attempt.

Yet we cannot perſuade ourſelves that this was the atrocious Act of a ſingle Traitor. Some have ventured to call it accidental. It appears to us to have been a preconcerted and deliberate Act of a villainous Confederacy.

The Time choſen, when your Majeſty was paſſing to your Parliament in the Midſt of unſuſpecting and loyal Multitudes, afforded a proper Opportunity for Concealment; the unmerited Inſults of an infatuated Rabble, all uniting in the ſame ſavage Outcries of Diſaffection and Diſloyalty, continued and repeated with the unabated Rage of Malice and Diſappointment to the very Doors of your Majeſty's Palace; theſe are Circumſtances ſtrongly marking the Direction of Aiders and Abettors of a premeditated Plan: Not to mention the unexpected Confuſion which a Deed of ſo much Horror, had it taken Place, muſt have produced in the Midſt of the juſt and neceſſary War in which we are engaged.

We are extremely concerned to remark that political Jealouſies, which have no Foundation but in the Miſrepreſentations of a few, ſhould, in any of your Majeſty's Subjects, have prevailed over the better and ſtronger Principles of Religion and Humanity.

We truſt, however, that out of this deteſtable Enormity much Good may ariſe. The Minds of all your Majeſty's beſt Subjects, by far the Majority of the Nation, will, in Abhorrence of ſuch Violence, be more firmly united in the Defence of your Perſon and Government. Your faithful Parliament, to whom the Security of the whole Community is intruſted, who are the moſt conſiderable and the beſt-informed Part of your People, will meet the ſeditious Spirit of the Times with the proper Reſtraint of a ſalutary Law, effectually checking in future all unwarrantable and arbitrary Attempts to deſtroy our excellent Conſtitution, and to rob us of thoſe invaluable Liberties which this Country, above all others, has ſo long and ſo happily enjoyed under that Protection.

Under all theſe Conſiderations it is our bounden Duty, with the Reſt of our Fellow Subjects, if this Nation is worthy of ſo great a Bleſſing, earneſtly and devoutly to pray that the ſame good Providence of God, which has ſo wonderfully preſerved our much-loved Sovereign in the Hour of imminent Danger, will, through a long and proſperous Reign over us, continue to be his Defender and Keeper, and give him Victory over all his Enemies.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

LES Deſcendants des François Proteſtants, autrefois Refugiés dans vos Royaumes, fidelles à cette Loyauté inaltérable pour votre auguſte Maiſon qu'ils tiennent de leurs Peres, s'empreſſent, conjointement avec tous vos Sujets, de mettre au Pié de votre Trône ce Témoignage public de leur reſpectueux Dévouement. Ils n'ont pû être Témoins qu'avec Horreur des Excès atroces, auquel des Monſtres ont oſé ſe porter contre la Perſonne ſacrée de votre Majeſté, et ils en ont reſſenti la plus amére Douleur! Graces immortelles ſoyent rendues au Maitre ſuprême des Empires, et de ceux qui en ſont les Chefs, d'avoir garanti de leur Parricide rage un Roi chéri de ſes Peuple, à tant de Titres, et dont la Conſervation eſt inſeparable de la Proſpérité nationale. Ils ſeront prêts en tout Tems, Sire, à concourir dans toute l'Etendüe de leurs Moyens, avec vos fidéles Sujets, à la Défenſe de votre Perſonne ſacrée, et de celle de votre Gouvernement paternel! Ils abhorrent ces Opinions, encore plus inſenté qu'impies, qu'à la Honte d'un Siécle éclairé, on s'eſt plû à propager de nos Jours, avec une Sorte de Fanatiſme, et qui ne tendent à riens moins qu'à ébranler, avec les Droits des Souverains et la legitime Soumiſſion des Peuples, l'Empire même de la Religion et des Moeurs. Ils repouſſent, avec Effroi, de ſi perfides Syſtêmes, et ils les enviſagent comme le Fruit de la plus profonde Dépravation. C'eſt l'Aveu qu'ils ſe croyent appellés à faire aujourd'hui en votre Préſence auguſte, Sire, des Sentiments qui les animent. Puiſſe cette Providence adorable, qui veille ſur les Bons, et confond les Conſeils des Mechants, continuer de courir du Bouclier de ſa Protection la Perſonne de votre Majeſté et votre illuſtre Maiſon, pour faire dans toute la Suite des Siécles la Gloire et le Bonheur des Générations à venir. To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham, beg Leave, with the moſt unfeigned Regard and Affection, to ſhew our extreme Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the atrocious Attempt that has been made againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, at a Time when your Majeſty was about to exerciſe one of the Functions of our moſt invaluable Conſtitution.

We lament exceedingly that there ſhould be in your Majeſty's Dominions a Set of People ſo depraved and infatuated by the Diffuſion of ſuch diſorderly Principles; but when we reflect what are the Sentiments of a few Men in the moſt elevated Situation, our Wonder in ſome Degree ceaſes that the Weak and Profligate ſhould be ſo miſguided by the miſchievous Influence of Example.

Impreſſed with the moſt lively Satisfaction and heartfelt Joy for your Majeſty's Eſcape from ſo outrageous an Attempt, we do moſt cordially congratulate your Majeſty upon ſo great an Evil being averted; an Evil pregnant with the moſt dangerous Conſequences to the State, and to the future Happineſs and Welfare of all your loving Subjects.

We feel our Minds much conſoled by the wiſe Meaſures that have been adopted by both Houſes of Parliament, which we moſt ſincerely hope will be conducive of future Security to your Majeſty, and will promote that Felicity, which your Majeſty has ſo juſt a Claim to, from your unremitting Attention to whatever concerns the true Intereſt and Happineſs of of all your Subjects.—And that our moſt Gracious Sovereign may long live to reign over a grateful and affectionate People is our hearty Prayer.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall, Clergy, Gentlemen and Principal Inhabitants of the ſame Town and adjacent Pariſhes, aſſembled at the Guildhall in the ſaid Town on the 17th Day of November, 1795, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty at this ſerious and momentous Criſis with Sentiments of profound Reſpect and Veneration for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and to offer our moſt cordial Congratulations to your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the Outrage lately committed againſt the ſame in your Majeſty's paſſing to and from Parliament in the Exerciſe of one of the moſt important Functions of our glorious Conſtitution.

Feeling the utmoſt Horror and Indignation at ſo treaſonable an Attempt, we earneſtly hope that your Majeſty, with the Concurrence of Parliament, will ſpeedily deviſe ſuch Meaſures as will in future effectually prevent all ſeditious Aſſemblies and Meetings, where the moſt unremitting Endeavours are practiſed to ſeduce your Majeſty's faithful Subjects from their Allegiance and Duty, to bring into Contempt and Diſrepute the ſeveral Orders of Government, and to ſubvert and overturn our invaluable Conſtitution.

We further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ever ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to ſupport the Conſtitution of this Realm as by Law eſtabliſhed.

[Preſented by Francis Gregor, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Cornwall.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Melton Mowbray Company of Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Melton Mowbray Company of Volunteers, having, in Addition to our reſpective Civil Characters in Society, taken upon ourſelves a Military one, for the Suppreſſion of all Riots and Diſturbances, and the Preſervation of the public Peace within our Neighbourhood, feel ourſelves peculiarly called upon in the preſent alarming and momentous Criſis, when we find the Diſaffected and Seditious holding public Meetings, for the Purpoſe of propagating Principles and Doctrines ſubverſive of all Order and good Government, to declare our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of that Spirit of Diſloyalty, Riot and Violence, which manifeſted itſelf in ſo atrocious and daring a Manner upon the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and was calculated to prevent your Majeſty from exerciſing one of the moſt important Offices of the Crown, and whereby your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon was endangered; and at the ſame Time to expreſs the great Satisfaction we feel in your Majeſty's happy Eſcape without Injury from the dangerous Outrage.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; and as we feel it the Duty of every good Citizen to aſſiſt the Executive Government in enforcing a proper Reſpect for the Laws, and in protecting the Conſtitution of our Country, to declare our Determination to give a prompt, and, as far as in our Power, an effectual Aſſiſtance to the Magiſtracy in preſerving the public Peace.

[Preſented by —— Pochin, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Commonalty and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bedford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Commonalty and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bedford, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the very daring and atrocious Outrage lately committed on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Senſible of the Bleſſings enjoyed by all Ranks of People under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Abhorrence and Indignation at ſo wicked and abominable an Attack; and we beg Leave to expreſs our earneſt Hopes, not only that the Perſons concerned may be diſcovered and meet the Puniſhment they deſerve, but that effectual Meaſures may be adopted for the Prevention of any ſimilar Attempt in future.

Impreſſed with the firmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, it is our ardent Prayer, that the Remainder of your Majeſty's Reign may be attended with uninterrupted Peace and Tranquillity.

Signed, in the Name, and by the Deſire of the General Meeting of the Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bedford, held at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, and ſealed with the Common Seal of the Corporation, this 18th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Peregrine Naſh, Mayor.

[Preſented by Samuel Whitbread, jun. Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Appleby, in the County of Weſtmorland, at their Town-Hall aſſembled, highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care and mild Government, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty upon your happy Eſcape from the late daring, malicious and malignant Attack upon your ſacred Perſon; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that they will, to the utmoſt of their Power, uſe every Effort to fruſtrate the Machinations of deſigning and wicked Men, which tend clearly to the Subverſion and Overthrow of that excellent Conſtitution under which we live, and from whence we derive ſo many invaluable Bleſſings.

Convinced that it is the Duty of every good and faithful Subject to ſtand forth and teſtify to your Majeſty their Loyalty to your Royal Perſon, at a Time when ſuch dark and inſidious Attempts are made, for ſelfiſh Views and ſeditious Purpoſes, we humbly aſſure your Majeſty that we will be firm, ready and united united in Support of your Majeſty's Government, and that happy Conſtitution formed at the Time of the glorious Revolution, unimpaired, as handed down to us by our Anceſtors, well aware that a ſecure and happy Subjection is more to be deſired than a dangerous, factious and licentious Liberty; and being truly ſenſible of your Majeſty paternal Care and Affection for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and that your Deſire is ro preſerve to them Tranquillity and Proſperity, with a full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, the Members of this Corporation and Inhabitants thereof will ever pray that your Majeſty's Life may be proſperous and happy, unruffled and undiſturbed by deſigning and diſcontented Men; and that you may long live over a free and happy People.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the 23d Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by the Hon. William Grimſton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Saltaſh, beg Leave to unite in the general Congratulations of your People, and to expreſs the moſt lively Satisfaction at your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late violent and daring Attack on your Royal Perſon.

Fully ſenſible ourſelves of the Bleſſings enjoyed under your Majeſty's Protection, and of the univerſal Attachment of the Nation to your Perſon and Family, we cannot for a Moment conceive that ſuch a nefarious Attempt was either inſpired by the Principles or directed by the Advice of any of your Majeſty's Subjects acting as a Body, but merely prompted by the momentary Infatuation of a few miſguided Individuals, whoſe Number muſt be as contemptible as their Deſigns were iniquitous.

Impreſſed with theſe favourable Sentiments towards our Fellow Subjects, (Sentiments which we think muſt be equally imprinted on your Majeſty's Mind) we come forward, in conjunction with them, to expreſs the Warmth of our Attachment to your Royal Perſon and to the Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed. We ſincerely pray, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over us in Peace and Proſperity. And as we know that is the Wiſh neareſt your Majeſty's Heart to obtain the Affections of your People, ſo we will venture to aſſure your Majeſty that you already poſſeſs them. May you ever entertain ſo juſt a Confidence, and place a firm Reliance on this beſt and ſureſt Protection; for as the Bleſſings reſulting from the Adminiſtration of a good Monarch are not confined in their Duration, but diffuſive of Advantage to the moſt diſtant Age, your affectionate Subjects cannot but poſſeſs the fulleſt Senſe of the conſtant Exertions of your Royal Virtues, and their Poſterity muſt look back with grateful Remembrance on the Source from whence their moſt valuable Enjoyments will be derived.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation this 23d Day of November, 1795.

Stephen Drew, D. Mayor.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clitheroe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clitheroe, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, in Moot Hall aſſembled, beg Leave unanimouſly to tender to your Majeſty our moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the Attack of abandoned Miſcreants whilſt your Majeſty was graciouſly diſcharging the important Duty of communicating with your Subjects in Parliament; an Attack the moſt heinous and flagitious, having, as we conceive, the ſavage and diabolical Intention to overwhelm, in one common Ruin, the Perſon of a moſt virtuous and juſtly beloved Monarch, and with him the whole Frame of Government, the Laws, the Religion, the Conſtitution, and all the Intereſts of the Empire.

That the ſame Providence may continue to protect your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family, and that your Majeſty may long reign over a happy and grateful People, are the ardent Prayers of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough the 20th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by Sir John Aubrey, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Germans, and of it's Neighbourhood, humbly preſume to approach your Throne, to expreſs our utter Deteſtation of the atrocious and ſavage Outrages which, to the Danger of your Majeſty's Perſon, were offered to your Majeſty in your Paſſage to and from the Parliament.

We congratulate with heartfelt Joy your Majeſty and the Empire at large on your providential Eſcape; and we feel ourſelves called upon at this awful Criſis to renew the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our perſevering and inviolable Attachment to the Laws and Conſtitution of our Country, and to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, on which we are fully convinced that the Security of Religion, of our Lives, Liberty and Property, as well as the Preſervation of all ſocial Order, depends.

That your Majeſty may long comtinue to reign over a happy, loyal, free and grateful People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

[Preſented by the Hon. William Eliot, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, deeply ſenſible of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life to all your People, beg Leave to approach your Throne with with our heartfelt Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the late wicked and horrid Attempt upon your sacred Person.

Impressed with a Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Reign, and considering as inseparably connected the Continuance of your Majesty's Life, the Happiness of your People and the Prosperity of your Kingdoms, we beheld with the greatest Horror and Detestation the execrable Design, which threatened to deprive us of the best of Kings.

Permit us, Sire, to assure you of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment to your Person and Government, and that we will, at the Risque of every Thing that is dear to us, resist all Attempts that may be made against your Crown and Dignity, and against the Peace of your loyal and faithful Subjects.

Accept, most gracious Sovereign, the undisguised Sentiments of our Breasts, the sincere Effusions of Loyalty and Truth; and may the Divine Providence, who guarded your Majesty, continue to preserve you for the Protection of your People, and for the Defence of our glorious and free Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th Day of November, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Reign.

[Presented by the Earl of Tyrconnel.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Commonalty and others, the Inhabitants of the County Borough of Carmarthen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, Commonalty and others, the Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, assembled at the Guildhall in the said County Borough, being conscious of the many invaluable Blessings which we uniformly have derived under your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Government, and knowing and feeling with infinite Satisfaction how much your Majesty has always at Heart the Welfare and Happiness of all the Subjects within your Majesty's Dominions, beg Leave to express, in the strongest Terms, our zealous Attachment, not only to your Majesty individually, but also to that glorious Constitution under which we fortunately live; a Constitution which has long since become the Admiration of all Europe, and which every true and loyal Briton considers as of inestimable Value.

Whilst we contemplate with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation the outrageous Violence recently directed against your Majesty's sacred Person, we are bound to offer up, with all the Fervor of sincere and pious Devotion, our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Governor of the World for having preserved from threatened Destruction, at the critical Moment of Danger, your Majesty's Life, and for averting the villainous and execrable Attempt to take it away; a Life so important as well to the Maintenance of our civil and religious Liberties, as also to the Prosperity of the whole Nation. We deeply lament that there should be found in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions Men so totally insensible to the Amiableness of your Majesty's Character, to the fatherly Love which your Majesty bears towards your Subjects in general, and of Dispositions so vile, that could even for a Moment harbour the Design and endeavour to exercise the Means of depriving us of the best and most virtuous of Sovereigns.

Be assured, Sire, that we shall not fail to exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power in inculcating the Necessity of holding inviolate the Person of your Majesty, and of preserving the Blessings derivable from that peaceable and orderly Demeanor which it is the Duty of every good Subject to cherish and adopt. That your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and the Fruition in the highest Degree both of temporal and eternal Felicity, are the cordial Wishes of us, who, with the utmost Deference and Veneration, subscribe ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Presented by Sir James Hamlyn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Brecknock, to express our sincere and heartfelt Gratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late daring and flagitious Outrage offered to your Royal Person by a deluded Rabble, when proceeding to the Function of one of the most solemn Duties of the Regal Office, that of meeting your Parliament for deliberating on the most weighty and important Concerns of the Nation.

May Divine Providence continue to avert and frustrate every hostile Attempt and Device against your Majesty's Person, may the Seditious be restored to a due Sense of the Protection and Happiness which they may enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government; and may your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of a loyal, united and grateful People.

[Presented by Charles Morgan, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Rothesay.

LEARNING, with equal Surprize and Indignation, the audacious and dangerous Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person, in your Passage to and from the Houses of Parliament, we think it our Duty to seize the earliest Opportunity of expressing the Abhorrence we feel at an Outrage offered to your Majesty in the Exercise of so important a public Duty.

Thankful to Divine Providence for averting those fatal Consequences with which it might have been attended, while we hope that the Endeavours of your Majesty's Servants will be effectual in bringing those who have been concerned to Justice. We trust that this Outrage will prove the Means of shewing to the World, from the general Expression of that Regret and Indignation it has excited, that your Majesty possesses the strongest of all Securities for the Preservation of your Person and Government, in the Affection of a People deeply sensible of that Freedom and Happiness which they enjoy under it.

Signed, in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council, Arch. Moore, Baillie.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Bute.

ATTACHED to your Majeſty's Perſon by the united Sentiments of Love and Duty, we have heard, with equal Regret and Indignation, of the Outrage offered to your Perſon, on an Occaſion which ought peculiarly to command the Reverence of all good Subjects, and think it our Duty to take the earlieſt Opportunity of offering to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on it's having pleaſed Divine Providence to avert thoſe fatal Conſequences which might have attended an Attempt in it's Nature not leſs alarming to your Subjects than it muſt have been painful to your Majeſty's paternal Feelings.

While we truſt effectual Meaſures will be purſued to diſcover and bring to Puniſhment thoſe who have been concerned in this daring Outrage, we are happy in the Conviction, that the affectionate Concern expreſſed by all Ranks of your Subjects on this Occaſion will ſhow that your Majeſty poſſeſſes the beſt of all Securities for the Safety of your ſacred Perſon in the inviolable Attachment of your Subjects, and their Senſe of that inſeparable Connection which ſubſiſts between their own Rights and Liberties and the ſacred and inviolable Character which the Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms has wiſely attached to the Perſon of the Monarch, as the beſt and ſureſt Means of their Preſervation.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Officers and Volunteers of the Corps of St. George, Hanover-Square, beg Leave moſt humbly to teſtify the Abhorrence we feel at the daring Attack recently made on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred and juſtly beloved Perſon, by a Set of miſguided and deſperate Men, loſt to all Senſe of Gratitude for the Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's benign Reign, in a Conſtitution poſſeſſing the utmoſt Degree of Liberty that is conſiſtent with the general Safety and Happineſs of the Community.

With Hearts full of Loyalty and Attachment to the beſt of Sovereigns, we preſume to aſſure your Majeſty that we will ever remain firm to the Cauſe we have undertaken, of aiding, in the Defence of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, the Support of the conſtitutional Government of our Country, and in the Suppreſſion of all Tumult, in ſtrict Obedience to ſuch Orders as may be intruſted to our Execution.

That the abſolute Ruler of all Things may continue to avert all Danger from your Majeſty's Perſon, is the conſtant and fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects the St. George's Volunteers.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Canterbury Volunteers, who, to the reſpective Situations they before held in Civil Life, have been honoured by your Majeſty with the Appointment of a Military Character, cannot but expreſs our higheſt Indignation at the horrid Attempt that has been made on your Majeſty's Life.

Permit us, moſt gracious Sire, to congratulate you upon your Eſcape from the outrageous Violence which ſome execrable and abandoned Wretches have dared to offer to your ſacred Perſon, and to aſſure you, that we hold it to be our bounden Duty to ſtand forth, at the Hazard of our Lives, to defend our Liberties from the Violence of thoſe pretended Reformers, who, with the ſame Hand that attempted to aſſaſſinate your Majeſty, would alſo attempt to deſtroy that ſublime and beautiful Fabric of our eſtabliſhed Government and glorious Conſtitution.

As it is our Duty, ſo will it be our Pride, to take an active Part in maintaining the Peace and good Order of Society, to give our Aſſiſtance to the Civil Power for the due Execution of the Laws, and to prevent from being carried into Effect thoſe horrid Plans of Sedition that would create in theſe your Realms the utmoſt Anarchy and Confuſion, and diſgrace a brave and honourable People.

May your Majeſty, whoſe bright and exemplary Character has ſhone forth to all the World, as well in the Mildneſs of your Government as in every domeſtic Virtue, be long continued on this Stage of Life to preſerve the Happineſs, Freedom and Independence of all your loyal Subjects.

This Addreſs, by the unanimous Reſolution of the Volunteers, was directed to be ſigned by the Commiſſioned Officers, on Behalf of themſelves and their reſpective Companies.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers, and Private Gentlemen of the Royal Paiſley Volunteer Corps, to approach your Throne, to expreſs their higheſt Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring Attempt on the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty by a Band of cowardly Aſſaſſins, the Engines of a deſperate Faction, whoſe Views, under the ſpecious Pretext of Reform, evidently are to ſubvert the Conſtitution and deluge the Land with Blood. They moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty and their Country on ſo great and providential an Eſcape, and hope that the juſt Vengeance of the Laws, which thoſe Wretches have ſo groſsly violated, will ſpeedily overtake them.

Inſpired with Sentiments of the warmeſt Attachment and unſhaken Loyalty to a Monarch, whoſe Virtues add Luſtre to the Crown he wears, and with the higheſt Veneration for their moſt excellent Conſtitution, the Royal Paiſley Volunteers beg Leave moſt ſolemnly to aſſure your Majeſty, that with thoſe Arms with which your Majeſty has been moſt graciouſly pleaſed to entruſt them, they will defend and protect, to the laſt Extremity, your ſacred Perſon, and ſupport the Laws of their Country againſt every

We furthermore aſſure your Majeſty, that we will at all Times hazard our Lives and Fortunes to preſerve your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and keep inviolate our envied Conſtitution, handed down to us by your Majeſty's Anceſtors; and we will be ready to co-operate with the Civil Power, and abide by it's ſalutary Authority and Controul, ſhould there be at any Time an unhappy Occaſion for calling us forth.

While we thus reprobate ſo flagitious an Act againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, we at the ſame Time feel ourſelves called on to ſtate, that, in our humble Apprehenſions, it has become both neceſſary and expedient to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may not only prevent ſimilar Outrages in future, but tie up the the Hands of wicked and deſigning Men from attempting, by ſeditious Meetings or otherwiſe, to overthrow the happy Conſtitution under which we live. Having full Reliance on the Wiſdom of Parliament for theſe Purpoſes, we conclude with aſſuring your Majeſty of our moſt perfect Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and that we will at all Times be ready to defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Principles of the Britiſh Conſtitution, as eſtabliſhed by our Forefathers at the glorious Revolution.

Theſe, we are happy to think, are the Sentiments of the great Body of the People committed to our Charge, whom it ſhall be our continued Endeavour to inſtruct in the great Principles of Religion, as contributing moſt effectually to their own preſent and future Happineſs, and their quiet and peaceable Subjection to civil Authority.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Hamilton, beg Leave humbly to expreſs our ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the grateful Senſe which we entertain of the many great religious and civil Bleſſings which we enjoy under your righteous Adminiſtration.

With the deepeſt Sorrow and Reſentment we have learnt that by an outrageous Mob, blind to the Advantages of good Government, and impelled by their own wicked Paſſions, your Majeſty, in opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, was groſsly inſulted, and your Life put in the moſt imminent Danger. We truſt that, as well for the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon as for the Stability of our happy Conſtitution, the Wiſdom of Parliament and the Vigour of your Executive Government will take effectual Meaſures to bring ſuch daring Offenders to Juſtice.

That the Almighty may give his Angels Charge over your Majeſty to keep you from the Hands of wicked Men, that He may make your Reign long and proſperous, and when you are full of Years and Honour you may be rewarded with a Crown of Glory in the Kingdom of Heaven, are Bleſſings for which we continually pray.

Highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, and impreſſed with a due Regard for our excellent Conſtitution, we cannot but expreſs our utter Abhorrence of the unprovoked and daring Outrages which on that Occaſion were offered to your Majeſty's Perſon and Authority.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Society of Solicitors of the Supreme Courts in Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

IMPRESSED with a deep Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings which the Nation enjoys under our free and happy Conſtitution, and feeling in common with all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects the warmeſt Attachment to your Perſon and Government, we the Society of Solicitors of the Supreme Courts in Scotland cannot view without Deteſtation and Abhorrence the flagitious Outrage offered to the ſacred Perſon of your Majeſty.

That your Life has providentially been preſerved from it is an Event which every real Friend to the Welfare of Great Britain conſiders with Thankfulneſs Thankfulneſs and Gratitude to that Almighty Power, by whom your Safety has been guarded. To us in particular it has afforded the moſt unfeigned and heartfelt Gratification; and we now beg Leave to approach your Throne with our reſpectful, dutiful, and ſincere Congratulations on the Diſappointment of this impious Attempt.

In the preſent Situation of public Affairs we feel that we cannot diſcharge our Duty to your Majeſty, and to our Country, without ſignifying our humble Opinion that new Powers and Proviſions are neceſſary for ſecuring your Royal Perſon, and for counteracting that Spirit of Licentiouſneſs and Innovation, which, aided by the Example of another Land, and by the unremitting Induſtry of profligate Men in the Encouragement of ſeditious Meetings, has gone Abroad among a Part of the People. We repoſe implicit Confidence in the Wiſdom of Parliament to provide an adequate Remedy for this alarming Evil; and we truſt that by a timely Exertion of thoſe Powers with which, for the Good of the People, it is inveſted, every Branch of our glorious Conſtitution ſhall be preſerved inviolate to the lateſt Times.

Signed, at a General Meeting, by James Bremner, Preſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers and Privates of the Corps of Northfleet Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with reſpectful Sentiments of firm Attachment, aſſuring your Majeſty that we felt the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence at the infamous Attack ſo daringly made on your Royal Perſon, whilſt in the Act of fulfilling a Duty perhaps the moſt ſacred with which you are entruſted by the firſt Conſtitution in the Univerſe, that of meeting the choſen and the hereditary Repreſentatives of your People in Parliament aſſembled.

As Engliſhmen, Sire, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Preſervation of that Conſtitution (purchaſed by the Blood of our Anceſtors) entire and in it's utmoſt Purity, firſt induced us Volunteers to enrol our Names, and declare ourſelves ready to act, at the Riſk of our Lives and Fortunes, in Support of your Royal Perſon, not only as the beſt of Kings, and Father of your People, but alſo as an eſſential Branch of the Legiſlature, intimately and inſeparably connected with all we hold moſt dear and valuable: And it is a perfect Conviction of the Neceſſity of every Meaſure which human Prudence can ſuggeſt, even a temporary Privation of Part of our Rights, in order effectually and ultimately to ſecure the Whole, which makes us rejoice in the great Attention evinced by Parliament, at this awful Criſis, to ſtop the further Promulgation of Doctrines too openly avowed and too ſedulouſly inculcated; Doctrines ſubverſive of all Order, inimical to all Religion, and tending only to create through theſe happy Realms the moſt abſolute Anarchy and Confuſion.

We are taught, Sire, that the Hearts of Kings are under the immediate Rule and Guidance of Divine Providence; and the irreproachable Conduct of your Majeſty in the relative Duties of Huſband, Father, Friend and Monarch, allows us to offer up, with the moſt perfect Dependance on the Goodneſs of the All-wiſe Diſpoſer of Events, a fervent Prayer, "That you may long continue under His Divine Protection."

We are, with due Humility, Sire, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the KING.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Highland Society of Scotland, incorporated by Royal Charter, aſſembled in a ſpecial General Meeting, to take into Conſideration the late daring Attempt on your ſacred Perſon, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape.

When we reflect on your Majeſty's private and public Virtues, and on the Tenor of your Reign, we are at a Loſs to determine whether the late Outrage is moſt atrocious as an Attempt againſt your Perſon, or an Inſult on your Dignity. As a Man and as a King we equally reſpect you; and while we are aſtoniſhed that Perſons ſhould be found among your Subjects capable of forgetting for a Moment what is due to you in both Characters, it is with peculiar Satisfaction we can aſſure your Majeſty, that every Corner of this your ancient Kingdom, from which our Society is collected, is filled with Abhorrence at the foul Treaſon, and is ready to ſend forth it's People in your Majeſty's Defence.

We truſt, however, that the Wiſdom of Parliament will take ſuch Meaſures as may ſecure to us your valuable Life and the Bleſſings of your Government.

In the Conſtitution of this Country, as by Law eſtabliſhed, we perceive every Conſtituent of Human Happineſs; and as your Majeſty is an integral, and, in our Opinion, a moſt eſſential Part of the Conſtitution, we muſt conſider every Attempt againſt your Perſon as the moſt dangerous Attack which can be made againſt ourſelves.

We ſhould be aſhamed of the Name of Britons, if we thought that the late Outrage received the Sanction of any Number of your Subjects beyond the deluded Wretches who committed it; but believe us, Sire, that it does not; and that an infinite Proportion of your Subjects remain devoted to your Perſon, and will riſk their Lives in Support of your Authority.

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Faculty of Advocates in Scotland.

WE, the Dean and Faculty of Advocates in Scotland, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to teſtify the Abhorrence which we feel at at the late traiterous Attack made upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; an Attack, the atrocious Nature of which, were it capable of Aggravation, would be rendered doubly deteſtable by the Outrage being committed at the very Moment that your Majeſty was proceeding to meet your Parliament to conſult how beſt to promote the Happineſs and Welfare of your People.

Though little accuſtomed to approach your Majeſty in our collective Character, we are ſo deeply impreſſed with Horror at the Attempt which was lately made upon your Majeſty's Perſon, that we cannot refrain from offering ourſelves to your Majeſty's Notice, and joining our Voice to the Congratulations of the Reſt of the Nation on your Majeſty's providential Preſervation. As your Majeſty is the Chief Magiſtrate of the Country, we conſider every Attempt to endanger your Royal Perſon as at once an Attack upon a Monarch juſtly dear to his People, and an effort to ſubvert the Britiſh Conſtitution. Permit us then, Sir, with one Voice, to expreſs thoſe Sentiments of Deteſtation which we feel at the Attack that was made upon your Majeſty; and in this public Manner to aſſure your Majeſty of our Affection to your Perſon, our Attachment to your Family, and our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Fortunes and our Lives in Defence of a King whom we love and revere, and in Support of a Conſtitution which we prize as the firſt of earthly Bleſſings.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the extenſive Bleſſings we enjoy, and of the many important Benefits which we have acquired during your Majeſty's ſplendid and auſpicious Reign, we, with Hearts filled with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, Loyalty, and Affection, beg Leave to renew our Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and of our Readineſs to acquieſce with any Meaſure your Majeſty's Parliament may deviſe for the more perfectly ſecuring your moſt ſacred Perſon and Dignity from the evil Machinations of profligate and deſigning Men, and the Permanency and Purity of a Conſtitution and Laws, which have ſtood by Ages the Wonders and Admiration of ſurrounding Nations.

St.

St. James's, December 8.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late wicked Inſult on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

It is for the Public Wiſdom to provide effectual Means to prevent a Repetition of this Crime; but as it could only proceed from a total Want of the religious Principle, we of the Clergy are eſpecially called upon, at this Juncture, to inculcate on our Hearers thoſe indiſpenſible Duties of Loyalty, Reſpect and Honor, which, on every Account, they owe to their Sovereign, and to repreſs, as far as we are able, that Spirit of Impiety, which, wherever it prevails, and ſo far as it prevails, threatens the Ruin of all Order in Society.

To theſe Exertions, Sir, we ſhall add our inceſſant Prayers to Almighty God to proſper your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for the public Good, and to protect your Majeſty's invaluable Life from all Danger.

[Preſented by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Heritors of the County of Cromarty, together with the Inhabitants of the Town of Cromarty, do now approach the Throne with a deep Senſe of our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Inſult offered to your moſt ſacred Perſon, at the ſame Time that we are happy to have in our Power to congratulate your Majeſty upon the merciful Eſcape you have made, and that the diabolical Attempts of a Set of ſeditious Incendiaries have been ſo providentially fruſtrated.

Senſible, as we are, that the Nation at large feel, as we do, warmly attached to your moſt ſacred Majeſty, and to that excellent Conſtitution which has ſo long been the Vehicle of unparalleled Bleſſings to theſe Realms, we truſt that the Meaſures now adopting by both Houſes of Parliament will give an effectual Check to the Deſigns of deſperate and unprincipled Men, who, preſuming on the Mildneſs of our Laws, have brought Sedition to a Syſtem, exciting falſe Alarms, and uſing every Means which the Wickedneſs of their Hearts can ſuggeſt, to poiſon the Minds of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, for the avowed Purpoſe of ſubſtituting Anarchy and Diſorder in the room of the ineſtimable religious and civil Privileges, which we enjoy in a far ſuperior Degree to every other Nation in the World.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a loyal, free and happy People, is our moſt fervent Prayer.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Cromarty, the 27th Day of November, 1795 Years, by Da. Urquhart, Preſes.

[Tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland by R. B. Æneas Macleod, Eſq;]

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Inſtant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1ſt Regiment of Foot Guards, was paſſing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently aſſaulted by Three Men, who were unknown to him, and ſtabbed in his Right Leg, and cut acroſs the Calf thereof with ſome ſharp Inſtrument, of which ſaid Stab and Cut he now lies dangerouſly maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to ſeize the Man by whom he believed he was ſo wounded and cut, the others again aſſaulted him, and reſcued the Perſon whom he had ſo ſeized.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, (except the Perſon who actually gave the ſaid Stab and Cut,) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the ſaid Regiment to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, ſo as that he or they may be convicted thereof,
